All Proceeds Benefit New Haven Area Health, Education, and Human Service Agencies, and College-bound Students

The Amity Charitable Trust Fund is the philanthropic arm of the Amity Club, an organization composed of 175 individuals.

The membership considers the needs of college-bound students, healthcare and human service agencies, and education among its priorities.

Over the years scholarship support has been provided to hundreds of New Haven area students and a variety of organizations including, but not limited to: Vantage Group; Columbus House Yale-New Haven Hospital; Quinnipiac University; Recording for the Blind; Ronald McDonald House; Albertus Magnus College; Women & Family Life Center; Clelian Center Adult Day Care; University of New Haven; Connecticut Hospice; Community Soup Kitchen; and the Eli Whitney Museum.

Since it's founding the Amity Charitable Trust has awarded more than $1,500,000 to Amity Scholars and community-based human service agencies.

Your contribution and participation in our golf tournament will insure Amity's ability to continue its support of these and other important needs.

The Amity Charitable Trust Fund is a 501(c)3 charitable organization serving all in need regardless of race, creed or color. Gifts are tax deductible to the extent provided by law.
